SIGNATURE and DECLARATION – IMPORTANT – READ BEFORE SIGNING

I declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief the information given by me in this application is true, and I understand that the above information forms the basis of my contract of employment. I understand that if any of the information supplied by me is found to be falsely declared, my contract may have been fundamentally breached and my employment may be terminated immediately.

STANDARD QUESTIONS / INTERVIEW LOG

- Use questions from this list as applicable. Space is provided on the next page for your own questions.

NOTES: (1) Your notes of the answers to these questions, and other notes made by you in respect of the candidate are legally available to the candidate on request. Therefore, ensure that your comments and notes reflect the organisation's standards for equality of opportunity, fairness, openness and honesty. (2) Two persons should conduct the interview, one of which should be the immediate supervisor/manager for the post on offer. If the second person is not, for reasons of resource restrictions, present during the interview, an acceptable substitute practice is for a second person to read the application, show the applicant around the premises while the interviewer prepares the interview questions, informally chat to the applicant, and feed back their impressions of/concerns about the applicant to the interviewer before the interview begins. (3) This process is essential to reduce the risk of discrimination.

Putting yourself in the position of a Service User, what do you think would be the most difficult thing about receiving personal support?

How can you, as a Care worker in a team, ensure that there is continuity of Care provided?

Working as a support worker places you potentially in a position of power and influence over a Service User. How do you ensure that you do not infringe that person's human rights?

What is the most enjoyable part of Care work?

STANDARD QUESTIONS / INTERVIEW LOG – PART 2

What has been most difficult?
How do you enable someone with substantial disabilities gain control over their own lives?
What do you understand about confidentiality? How does it apply?
Have you had experience and how do you support someone who has substantial difficulties in making himself/herself understood?
Do you understand the requirements of the post on offer and based on that understanding do you consider that you are capable, with training, of carrying out the required functions?

STANDARD QUESTIONS / INTERVIEW LOG – PART 3

Own/supplementary question:
Own/supplementary question:
The information detailed below must be given to all applicants	Sign when completed
State that all Carers will contract to achieve QCF Diploma Level 2 within 2 years of employment start, with exceptions being agreed by the Manager only in exceptional circumstances, and that all Registered Nurses and supervisors will be expected to achieve a supervisory management qualification within 2 years of start of employment.
State that all new employees will contract to undertake the organisation's own induction course, and those employees without equivalent qualifications will undertake a suitable training programme.
State that an offer of employment cannot be made until the DBS check is made and received back and is satisfactory, and if an offer is then made, it will be subject to two satisfactory references, including one from the previous employer, and a satisfactory DBS check, and that further checks with the DBS may be undertaken at any time during employment.
Ask that the candidate anonymously completes the equal opportunities monitoring form, and give them a stamped addressed envelope to return it.
State that it is normal policy to retain this application pack on file if the applicant is generally suitable for the post, but is unsuccessful this time around because a more qualified candidate is offered the post, so that they can be contacted if another suitable vacancy occurs in the future. Ask if this is acceptable. If the candidates say no, the interviewer must find the appropriate letter at the back of this pack and delete the sentence which refers to retaining the file.
